

Southeast Kansas Grazing and Forage School

Join us for a program that will cover grazing designs, soil to plant processes, supplemental forages, and growth timing to create an economical and maximum efficiency grazing and forage plan.

K-State Southeast Research and Extension Center
25092 Ness Road, Parsons

REGISTER

📞 (620) 437-7613

$15 registration fee

Other costs being covered by the Kansas Grazing Land Coalition.

Saturday, June 8 | 8:30 am - 3:00 pm

Warm-season grasses, facility and water system design, and rotation utilization. Field and farm tours will be included in much of this program.

Note: This is part two of the Grazing and Forage school. The first being held on April 6th. However, it was not needed to attend that program to join part two on June 8th.

There will be a cost of $15 for each program to cover lunch.
Other costs being covered by the Kansas Grazing Land Coalition.

K-State Research and Extension is committed to providing equal opportunity for participation in all programs, services and activities. Program information may be available in languages other than English. Reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities, including alternative means for communication (e.g., Braille, large print, audio tape, and American Sign Language) may be requested by contacting the event contact James Coover two weeks prior to the start of the event at (620) 724-8233 or jcoover@ksu.edu. Requests received after this date will be honored when it is feasible to do so. Language access services, such as interpretation or translation of vital information will be provided free of charge to limited English proficient individuals upon request.

Kansas State University Agricultural Experiment Station and Cooperative Extension Service
K-State Research and Extension is an equal opportunity provider and employer.